Staff Spotlight

As lead engineer and Project Director of Maintenance for Raintree's three Club Regina Resorts, Javier Piñón is like the personal doctor of our buildings, requiring great expertise in a diverse set of skills. His decades of experience have been priceless to Raintree as he not only knows the science and mathematics necessary for all the engineering, but he also has an intimate understanding of the needs and concerns of the business as well as our guests. Involved with the Club Reginas since their construction, and Raintree's longest tenured staff member, we proudly introduce you to:

Javier Piñón

CARING FOR OUR CLUB REGINAS FOR 32 YEARS

Tell us how you started your career at our Club Regina resorts (before it was even Raintree). Back in 1990 I was hired to work at Conrad Hilton in Cancun, who was looking to build 3 new resorts. I started as the Manager of Engineering and Maintenance, responsible for supervising the equipment and developing the policy manuals and operations for the department. After we opened Cancun in 1991, we then went to Puerto Vallarta to continue the same process and prepare the opening of Conrad Hilton Vallarta. In 1992, Conrad Hilton suddenly stopped operations in Mexico, but we continued on with the name Hotel Regina; then after approximately a year, it was changed to Hotel Westin Regina. Later, after Raintree took control was when the resorts got their 'Club Regina' names.

What got you interested in engineering? When I was in high school, I was already set on studying engineering, but hadn't decided between chemical or mechanical. At that time, I got a job in a workshop that made games for amusement parks and I got to see how they were designed and put together. It was fascinating, but I had to stop working there because the welding was affecting my vision. But it was clear I was made for electromechanical engineering, and I had a lot of support encouraging me to pursue it as a career.

How did you come to apply your engineering skills to the hospitality industry? When you finish university, you have no idea where you are going to end up. My first job opportunity was in hotels in Puerto Vallarta back in 1983, at Fiesta

Americana, working in the engine room in charge of the machinery. Since then, I have loved everything related to hotels because I could see more than just one area; to me, it was like a small town, with many areas needing many skills in order for it to function best as a whole. This excited me and I gave it my all so by the time I was 27 years old, I was the Manager of Maintenance at the largest hotel in Cancun, leading a team of around 60 people and overseeing many technical issues.

What are your main responsibilities as the Project Director of Maintenance for all our Club Regina resorts? I'm in charge of reviewing the replacement reserve study projections; elaboration of all the administrative procedures; execution of the approved projects; supervision of maintenance; security of guests, employees, and the properties; evaluation of disaster damage and reconstruction; and I carry out the inspection visits to each resort.

What's your favorite part about your job? I know the three properties very well because I have been involved in the electromechanical areas since their construction. I was even part of the team that designed the engine rooms and got to collaborate with the architects! I know these properties 100% and exactly what they need. I really enjoy seeing a project from planning to finish, until the results are to everyone's satisfaction.

Our members often don't see all the work done behind the scenes required to maintain the structural and mechanical operations and safety of our resorts. What are some interesting facts you can share? All the details can be complicated, but one thing members should know that the three Regina resorts are strategically well located, they were built very well using the best raw material that existed at the time of construction, and later works have been carried out to improve the safety of each one. In Club Regina Cancun we built a protection wall that is 8 meters under the sand. In Vallarta we built beach barriers. We are always doing new things, like installing the new roof tiles that have a low probability of flying out and causing damage. The machine rooms have been in operation for more than 30 years and are in very good condition, all this is due to everyone's efforts.

Often your work requires a direct contact with natural disasters. How many have you helped our resorts with? I have dealt with approximately 20 hurricanes and tropical storms, and one earthquake. The worst of which were Wilma in Cancun (2005), Odile in Cabo (2014), and the 1995 earthquake in Vallarta.

Tell us about your experience at Club Regina Los Cabos after Odile in 2014. We heard you actually lived onsite, even with all the damages, so you could lead the repairs. That's right. It was important for me to be onsite right away to address our biggest challenge- reestablishing the water and electricity. These are the most important because without these you can't repair anything else, and the property would begin to decline. Next, we had to do a thorough clean and inspection of the whole property to assess for damages. Then we addressed the mechanical and structural needs, and lastly, we rebuilt all the rooms and service areas affected. Seeing the finished results and the reopening one year later is one of my proudest memories.

You are Raintree's most tenured team member. What makes Raintree the kind of company you want to stay with for more than 25 years? That's an interesting question, back when the change happened, Mr. John McCarthy (Raintree) and Eduardo D' Lima (Westin) spoke to me about not being able to work for two companies anymore (Westin and Club Regina), and that I should decide. I have never regretted my decision to stay with Raintree because of all the trust the company has put on me. I feel my proposals are heard, I keep growing and finding new challenges, and that's what keeps me here. I always recommend us to those looking for work because there are so many opportunities, and if you give your all, you can find many rewards and continued growth.

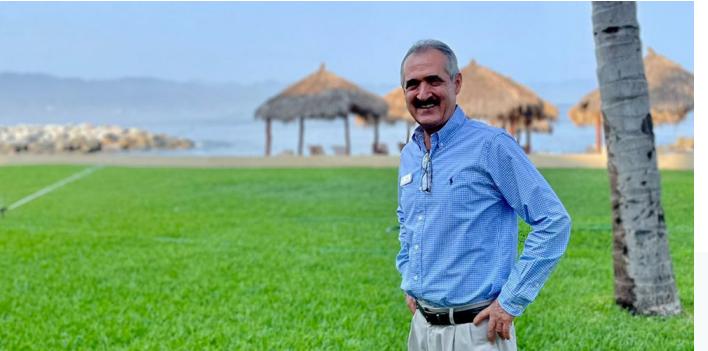

Tell us a little about your background and growing up. Did anything from your upbringing help prepare you for this role?

I was born in a town called Yahualica, Jalisco, 2.5 hours north of Guadalajara. I am the oldest of 9 siblings and my childhood was between living on the ranch and living in the town. Education was very important to my mother, so we moved to Guadalajara in 1970 for access to good schools and university. My dad, a very hard-working man and very good person, along with my mom was the perfect combination for me and my siblings. They taught us that with effort and dedication, we could achieve any goal we set for ourselves.

I also love to learn. My motto is humbleness, and I do not hesitate to help, or to ask for help. I like to listen and take all opinions into account, not just from other engineers. There is something you can learn from everyone!

Tell us about your family today. My wife, Valeria, was born in Mexico (state), but grew up in the Port of Veracruz. We met in Cancun, and we got married there. This year we are celebrating our 34th anniversary! We have two children- a son who's 32 years old, and a daughter who's 27 years old. I don't have grandchildren yet, but I have a pet dog, Hunter, he's a Golden Retriever.

What do you and your family like to do together in your free time? We like to take short trips on the weekends to the towns around Vallarta. We also really like going to the movies. We go once or twice a week. My favorite movie is 'Gone with the Wind', I can watch it many times and still enjoy it.

We know Raintree runs in your family- tell us about your nephews. Yes, I have two nephews- Jorge is an electromechanical engineer like me, and Alejandro is a systems engineer. After university Jorge asked if I had any job leads, and I told him we had an opening. He interviewed and started with us in 2007. Then in 2008 we were looking for a technician, and that's when Alejandro joined us. Now they are both in Los Cabos where Jorge is the Maintenance Manager and Alejandro is the Systems Manager.

We hear one even named his baby daughter "Regina". Yes, that was a surprise! Even before she was born, Jorge told me they wanted to name their daughter Regina. He said it was not only because they liked the name, but in honor of Club Regina, his first place of work. Regina is now 4 years old.

What are your favorite things about living in Puerto Vallarta? I love living here because Puerto Vallarta still feels like a small town, it is not overpopulated, and it is tranquil, safe, and peaceful. The people are very friendly.

Tell us about something that others might be surprised to know about you. Maybe that I started my career as a boilerman in an engine room and worked my way up. With that said, I believe that giving your all at work pays off. There are no limits to continue growing professionally. We are the only ones setting limits on ourselves.

Reflections from our 25-year Members

Over 4000 of our Members have been with us since the beginning! Here, some of our inaugural members share some of their favorite memories and reflect on how Raintree has made a difference in their lives for the last 25 years.

Marianne Spray

"This year we're celebrating a 75th birthday (Russ) and celebrating 25 years of membership and visits to beautiful Club Regina Los Cabos. We have made many wonderful friends in this area and location over the many years. It's our home away from home. We are planning a family reunion for next year!"

Ramona Simmons

"We became members when Club Regina Los Cabos was still under construction. We love our home away from home! As soon as we arrive and feel the breeze on our faces, smell the salt air and see the sand, sea and beautiful architecture converge, we immediately exhale.... We celebrated our 40th wedding anniversary here in 2019 and will be having a family reunion here next year! Thank you, Raintree, we truly love Club Regina Los Cabos!"

Alycia Johansen

"It's my family's 25th anniversary since our first trip and becoming members. Our favorite memories at the resort included all the shenanigans that happen at the swim up bar! Bingo, volleyball, mixology class, and dance class. We love that we've made lifelong friendships with staff members like Jordy and Lucas. We have loved returning to our Cabo home year after year, and now enjoy bringing friends along to share our love of one of our favorite places to vacation."

The Lapierre Family

"Our Raintree vacations have been used to get the family together. Grandparents, children, and grandchildren alike all agree that our Raintree vacations are the highlight of the year! A favorite memory is watching my grandchildren experience wildlife in Teton National Park and the awesome impact it had on them. One time a herd of bison surrounded our car, each pausing to peek into the car. This sort of thing just doesn't happen in San Diego. Buying into Raintree has been one of the best investments we've made!"

Reflections from our 25-year Members

Floyd T. Johnson

"Raintree has allowed us to take time to recreate ourselves. During our younger years being members of Raintree reminded us to take time away. While we lived in California it was easier to go to Mexico. Now in our golden years and living in Florida, we use the affiliated resorts in Orlando to enjoy a happy family time together. In fact, we will be vacationing in July 2022 to celebrate our granddaughter's high school graduation. We have had and hope to continue to have many memorable times!"

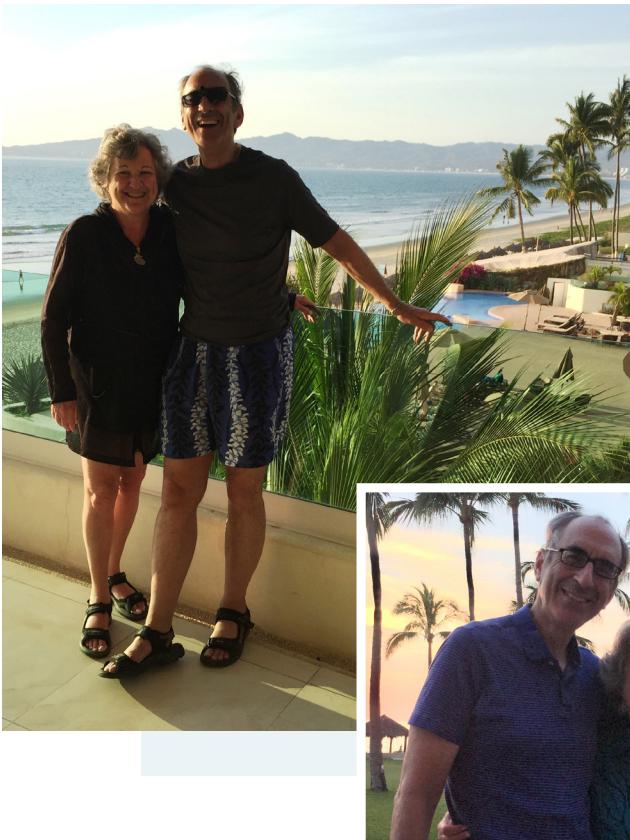

Janet Cartwright

"As members since 1994, we have met so many kind and sincere people, I feel as though I have an extended family. I think this 'Welcome Home' picture tells the story for a lot of people who visit Club Regina, it certainly does for me! And on that last day, mimosas with my daughter made the departing a little easier!"

Dan & Vickey Sherwin

"We have never regretted our initial purchase on our honeymoon in Feb 1996. We have upgraded many times and always enjoyed all the places we've been able to visit. One of our favorite memories is celebrating Vickey's 70th birthday in Puerto Vallarta with almost the whole family. Keep up the good work and thanks again for the great ride we have had!"

Joan & Joel Benowitz

"Raintree has been an amazing lifeline for us. Our vacations are very important to us because they are the only time my hard-working husband gets to relax. Swimming, snorkeling, scuba diving, or just lounging in a chair under the tropical sun with a frozen margarita in hand has been just what we both need to get away from the stresses of life. We purchased our timeshare when our three daughters were young, and they've enjoyed our twice-yearly visits to the various Raintree locations in Mexico as much as we have. We have so many fond family memories thanks to Raintree!"

Debbie & Marty Pivnick

"We have been coming to Puerto Vallarta since the mid-1970s. When we began to stay at Club Regina, we felt like we were 'coming home' each winter. The resort is beautiful and very well-maintained, the accommodations are spacious and well-equipped, and the staff are top-notch. We've also brought our children and grandchildren several times. We enjoy many of the adult activities, including Zumba, Karaoke, Bingo; and the grandkids love the pools and the children's activities. Watching the sunset from our balcony is always memorable -- those photos end up in our photo albums every year!"

#myraintree

Reflections from our 25-year Members

Richard & Gail Yest & Family

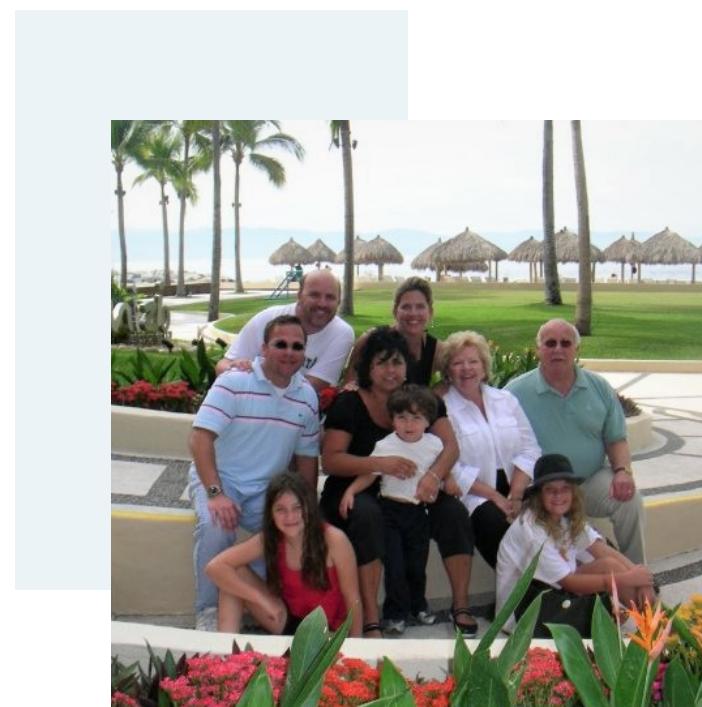

"To say that Club Regina Cancun has created memorable vacations for us would be an understatement. Three generations of the Yest Family have enjoyed and appreciated the staff, facility, hospitality, and location for 25 years. Every year has been memorable. Now three generations can honestly say that when the jet hits the tarmac and we are received at the front desk, "we are home". We instantly become part of a bigger family. We are more than grateful for the time and vacation experience we have had these past 25 years and look forward to many more positive experiences!"

#myraintree

Chris & Brenda Johnson & Family

"On our very first trip to the Baja, it took hours for the salesman to convince us, but we eventually decided Club Regina was the perfect spring break spot for two teachers living in a wintry climate. Club Regina was only partially built, no two bedrooms, only one swimming pool, but impressive, well designed and a stunning location. We have never regretted our decision. We still love coming. It has aged, mostly gracefully, and we love the many wonderful employees we have met through the years and look for them when we return. We have used other Raintree Resorts in Mexico, the USA, and Canada, but the Cabo Club Regina is still our favorite!"

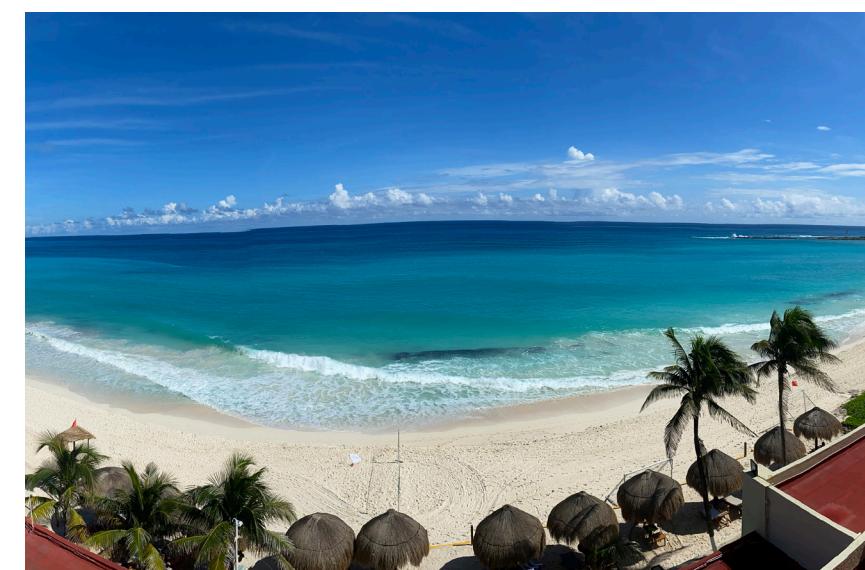

The Schomer Family

"Thank you, Raintree, for being a constant in so many amazing Schomer Family memories!! We always look forward to our time at Raintree's Club Reginas resorts- only a hurricane and Covid have kept us away over the past 25 years! Every vacation brings so many fun memories... watching our grandkids learn to swim, whale watching from the pool, naming and launching baby turtles into the ocean, watching New Year's Eve fireworks, playing Loteria and balloon games amidst lots of laughter, enjoying delicious shrimp tacos poolside, and snorkeling & boating excursions to Lands End. We are grateful to have spent so many special vacations in the magical setting of Raintree's Club Reginas resorts and we look forward to more adventures ahead!"

The GHubb Clan

"Our family has literally grown up vacationing with Raintree, mostly at the Club Regina Resorts. We all look forward immensely to our vacations in the sun and totally relaxing together as a family. The kids are grown up now (we are going to be grandparents soon!) and the kids still love vacationing with us oldies. Likely a whole new generation will start vacationing with Raintree very soon.

We really feel and believe in the 'coming home' phrase that is used so often at RVC/Club Regina. That is how we feel- comfortable, welcomed, respected, and relaxed. Exactly what we want from our vacations!"

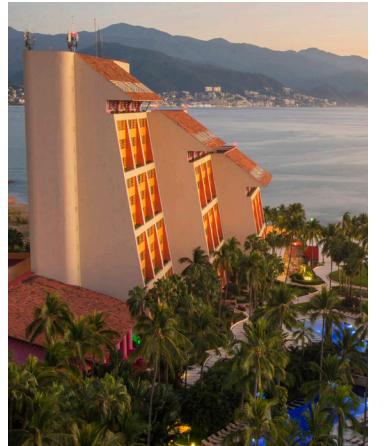

Antonio Cepeda

"These 25 years have been very important for us, for our vacation time, and because we have formed a family with the employees and members of the club. Year after year we have been enjoying the hotels in Cancun, Puerto Vallarta, Whistler, etc. In fact, my son has so many fond memories at Club Regina Puerto Vallarta growing up, he decided to get married there! This year he will bring my two granddaughters to start the Raintree tradition for them. Congratulations for your 25th anniversary and for our anniversary having so many happy vacations through Raintree. You have done a great job!"
